Vadodara/ Anand: The car of RS Sodhi, managing director of the Gujarat Cooperative Milk Marketing Federation (GCMMF), which markets brand Amul, met with an accident in Anand late on Wednesday night.

Sodhi and the car driver received minor injuries and are safe, GCMMF officials

The accident occurred when the driver tried to avert a two-wheeler told TOI. Sources said that the accident occurred on Anand-Bakrol Road when Sodhi was heading towards his home from the federation headquarter at around 9pm.

Sources said that the car driver tried to avert a two-wheeler that suddenly came in front of the car. The driver took a turn but lost control after which the car hit the divider and overturned.

Both Sodhi and his driver were shifted to Zydus Hospital in Anand for treatment. "Mr Sodhi and his car driver have received minor injuries but are safe and stable," Jay-en Mehta, chief operating officer of GCMMF told TOI.

Rider of the two-wheeler who has also received injuries is also undergoing treatment, sources said.
